Auntie April was a gifted maker - she inspired me to piece a quilt (and inspected my stitches and encouraged me) and also created an amazing buckskin dress that is a family treasure to this day. She and I had a special connection and I treasure the memories I have with her. She started a quilt for my college graduation and gave it to me - finishing it is up to me. I better get on that. My small, crooked stitches next to her tidy stitches. 🧵🧺

Auntie April, you were the closest thing my mom had to a sister. I loved when you two would get together because you guys were so funny and so LOUD. Even in my 40s you still called me "baby." I love you!
