Glenda Siegrist Obituary

Glenda Lou Siegrist was born August 4, 1950, in Farmington, New Mexico to Willie D McCoy and Emma Louetta Rogers. She married Clifford Siegrist in 1981 in Miami, Oklahoma. They began their life together in Arkansas, before moving to Bristow where they made their home. There, Clifford was building a sawmill. Between the couple, Glenda and Cliff had two daughters, Kandy Batey of Bristow, and Dama Lee Hinds of Springdale, AR; sons, Cleve Siegrist of Hindsville, AR, and Coy Neil Siegrist and wife, Sherry of Marble, AR; 12 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. Glenda had four sisters, Bessie May Meredith, Alice D Turner, Willie McGarrah, and Mary Pfeifer; three brothers, Johnny Fox, Bobby Lee McCoy and Tim E. McCoy. She had two close friends that she loved and called sisters, Sharon McMillan and Rosita Chaves. Glenda drove a school bus for Bristow Public School. She loved children and would play songs for them. Glenda and Cliff were members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. Glenda had many callings in the church. One was working with the sisters and meeting any needs that could be met. She was a kind and loving person. She was the family history keeper for both sides. She visited people all over the country doing genealogy. Glenda always had kind words and a smile. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends. She passed away May 18, 2023. She was 72 years old.

GLEND A, I will never forget walking into church that Sunday when you jumped up to welcome me to that tiny branch of members. You introduced me to Kandy who had a baby boy just a little older than my baby boy at the time. You picked me up from my home and took me to the store to yard sales to Sapulpa Walmart and anywhere else you were going. You welcomed my step kids into primary and just made me feel so at home. I was so homesick for AZ and my Mom and you took me and Jack under your wing in every way you could. You never had an unkind word to say and always spoke of our Father in Heaven and the scriptures. I struggled so much at that time and I know you were put in my path for a reason. I'll never forget you. I hope you have met my mom by now in Heaven. I'm sure you will be fast friends. I know your family will miss you so much but I know you needed peace and an end to your struggle here on Earth. I hope you are flying with the angels and doing the things you seemed to do and love the best. To serve others . Love ya so much!! Chalyce Butler
