Peggy Harle Obituary

Peggy Lou Harle passed away peacefully at 10 AM, Wednesday morning, March 8th, 2023 in Sapulpa, Oklahoma in the presence of her loving family. A Celebration of Life will be held from 1 - 3 PM, Saturday, March 25, 2023 at Keifer City Hall, Keifer, Oklahoma with lunch being served. Born February 1, 1956 in Amarillo, Texas. Peggy is the daughter of Robert Loyd Blasingame and DeLois (Dee) P. Simmons. Peggy grew up in West Texas and New Mexico. She was very helpful to her mother and siblings, growing up very family oriented. To Peggy, family was everything. After high school, Peggy pursued a career in cosmetology, where she achieved several certifications over the years. All while she raised her only son, David Blasingame, as a single mother. Peggy later married Taylor Harle on November 20, 2000 in Oldham County, Texas where they lived and worked on their ranch. Peggy had a heart of gold. She loved spending her free time volunteering at the local church as a Sunday school teacher. Most of all Peggy was a wonderful mother to her only son, an amazing meme to her grandchildren and all around a great friend to all. Peggy is survived by her family; her son, David Blasingame and his wife, Rhiana; sister, Denise Seratte; brother, Michael Blasingame; grandchildren: Makayla Barrett, Chloe Blasingame, Emily Blasingame, Dyllan Smith, Madison Milligan; great grandchildren: Parker, Carson, Hudson and a great-granddaughter on the way; nieces and nephews: Amber Seratte, Bri and Lance Davis, Keely and Chase Porter, Aron and Sydney Blasingame, Zachary and Kerri Blasingame, Shyenne and Shawn Buck, Chaisse Blasingame; and step siblings: Greg and Steve Simmons, Danny Dickerson, Kathy George, Becky Rose and Lisa Davis. Peggy is preceded in heaven by her parents: Robert Blasingame and DeLois (Dee) P. Simmons; husband, Taylor Harle; brother, Mark Blasingame; and brother-in-law, Brian Seratte.
