Jennifer Paine Obituary

Jennifer Anne Owens Paine was born in Wenatchee Washington on May 6, 1978 to Lori Green, and James Owens. The family moved to Stillwater Oklahoma by the time she was a year old and that is where she grew up, Tulsa has been her home for the last 14 years.

Jennifer was an avid reader and a gifted writer. She had an ability to write greeting cards in a way that touched people's hearts. Jennifer had many careers in her life journey, from; hospitality, fitness instructor, weather girl, her own photography business, medical sales rep, and realtor. She was successful at everything she set her mind to, as she put everything into what she cared about. Relationships and the people around her mattered deeply to her and she always put others before herself. Her family, friends, and the people she served in her careers all loved her and she loved them back.

Jennifer was an amazing mother, wife, daughter, sister, and friend. She was the kind of person that never met a stranger. She met so many people in her profession as a realtor and was so dedicated to being her best for her clients. She was loved and respected by her colleagues and her clients always became her friends. Jennifer had a heart of gold and would do anything for anyone. She lived her life with such grace and humility. One of her best qualities was her ability to extend grace and love to everyone around her. She lived her life according to her strong Christian faith and she loved her family fiercely. She was also the most loyal friend. Jennifer had a contagious smile and one that could light up a room and laugh you couldn't help but to laugh with. She was loved by many and will be missed by all who knew her.

She is predeceased by her maternal grandparents, Stanley and Colleen Green, paternal grandparents, Merle and Eileen Owens; and her uncle, Corky Green. Surviving family members include her husband, Brian Paine and her children, Taylor and Noah Bennett and Brooklyn and Roman Paine of Tulsa, who were the loves of her life; her parents, Lori Green of Stillwater and Jim (Linda) Owens of Tulsa; mother and father-in-law, Cheryl and Craig Paine of Cookson; her siblings, Colby (Becky) Owens and nephews, Edison and Finnley of Salt Lake City, Nicole (Sam) Kohler of Guthrie and Rachel (Ben) Hay; and niece, Ellen and nephew, Lucas of Tulsa; her sister-in-law, Ashley (Kurt) Boomer and nephews, Seth and Grayson of Collinsville; along with many extended family friends whom she cared deeply about.

Jennifer was loyal to everyone she loved, and always wanted to make others happy. She had a very humble goofy side to her that could reach anyone. She was a protector of everyone she loved because she selflessly cared deeply. She was the best at giving speeches that seemed to touch everyone in the room.

Please direct memorial contributions in Jennifer's name to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital www.stjude.org.

A funeral ceremony honoring Jennifer will be held 11 AM Wednesday, October 19, at the Redeemer Church, 5415 E. 101st Street in Tulsa. A private interment will be held in Calvary Cemetery.

Philippians 4:5-7

Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

I had the pleasure of meeting Jen 10 years ago the night before her and Brian's wedding. She was magnetic with her smile, humor, laugh and that fabulous fur vest she was rocking! This was the start of our friendship that I am so grateful to have had. Each time I had the opportunity to hang out with Jen I left our visit with her faithful words of wisdom, having had many much needed laughs, feeling encouraged and supported by her. She loved and cared for her friends (that she always considered family) deeply and had a way of making you feel seen, heard and loved. I am beyond grateful that God put her in my path because she made such a positive impact in my life and was someone I admired and looked up to. My sweet friend Jen May you rest in Peace with God and the Angels in Heaven. Thank you! - Victoria Salinas Renegar

Dearest Family of sweet Jennifer, we knew Dear Jennifer mostly through Corky. We enjoyed watching her march and perform in the Macy's Day Parade , playing cards with Corky's mom and dad and hearing about Lori and the kids , that one trip (Frontier City?) that Uncle Corky included Sara on to hang with "Corky's kids " and the beautiful service she conducted for our dear sweet Corky , my best guy friend since I was 17. She graciously accepted my FB friendship and it was so fun to see her with her precious growing family. I loved seeing the educational beach trip during COVID! Her kind and loving heart was visible in her words and actions, even on Facebook . I'm so happy you had all had her the time you did ; I'm so very sorry for this pain and hurt. I can imagine this is the first think you think of in the morning and the last thing you think of at night; I'm glad you have each other. We are thinking of you all that way too and send much love and prayers for healing. .

Jennifer stepped in as a the older sister I never had as an only child. Growing up alongside her youngest sister Nicole, Jennifer was the first to have some of the tough conversations with me about relationships, childbirth, and so much more. Her presence was warm and safe -- she always made you feel included and seen. The trips we took and memories I have of her are on replay in my mind. Thank you Jenny for being you. The first time I met Jen was at McGills. Brian said he had found his soulmate but was trying to protect her from me 😊. She came in and sat down, shortly afterwards Brian came in, walked over kissed her and went to the bathroom. I sat down beside her, put my arm around her and said, "you seeing anyone?". The only time I've ever seen her speechless, she stuttered and said "bbbig guy, bbig guy in the bathroom". Brian came out and said, "oh my Jen I should have warned you about Jerry" 😊. We've loved each other ever since. BIGGEST HEARTED PERSON TO EVER BE BORN. Gina and I are honored to have known you, loved you and been loved by you.
