Tammy Beavers Obituary

Tammy Jo Beavers passed away unexpectedly Wednesday, April 6, 2022 at her home in Glenpool. Arrangements for a memorial ceremony are pending. Tammy was born January 17th, 1969 in Tulsa. She excelled as a student and played basketball for Sperry High School. Tammy attended Northeastern State University but eventually returned to Tulsa where she completed college. She studied law and psychology. Tammy was employed as a pricing strategist for Interline Brands and eventually HD Supply – a Home Depot affiliate. She married Bobby Beavers on New Year’s Day in 2018 in downtown Tulsa. Tammy was always making people laugh. You never knew what was going to come out of her mouth. She was “straight to the point and always sticking to her guns! Tammy loved animals, scrapbooking, and antiques. She attended a bible study every Tuesday night at South Tulsa Baptist Church. Surviving family members include her husband, Bobby Beavers; her son, Andrew, stepson, Toby Beavers and fiance, Amy.
