Cessna 180, call sign "Two Charlie November". Charles truly enjoyed his life as a husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, engineer, and farmer. He became an engineer during the space race but transitioned to farming and flying pipeline. He was engaged in all his children's school activities and stressed the importance of education and learning for your entire life. He built Ham radio equipment from scratch and built a custom house on the farm for his wife Frances complete with a greenhouse for all her plants and an awesome spiral staircase inspired by the spiral staircases used in the Missile silos. He had no idea that the private pilot license he got while working for NASA would turn into his love for flying and a 40-year career. A memorial service for Charles will be held on Saturday, February 26th at 11:00 am, at the First United Methodist Church in Medford Oklahoma.
