Robert Morris Obituary

Robert Lee Morris II passed away unexpectedly Saturday, August 28, 2021 in Broken Arrow. A funeral ceremony honoring his memory will be held 1 PM Friday, September 10, 2021 at the Glenpool Prayer and Healing Center. The family will receive visitors from 6-8 PM Thursday at Bixby-South Tulsa Funeral Service. He is 21 years old.

Born August 26, 2000 in Tulsa, Robert is the son of Robert and Heather (Love) Morris. Such a great kid throughout his childhood, Robert loves football, especially watching the Oklahoma Sooners and Dallas Cowboys with his dad.

Robert is also athletic and played baseball throughout high school, graduating from Glenpool in 2019. Once he sets his mind to something, he won't stop until he accomplishes whatever he set his mind to. Smart and artistic, Robert always lights up the room when he enters the door. He is a distribution delivery driver for LDF Sales.

Robert's loving and caring personality will not soon be forgotten. He is a terrific role model to his sisters and loves lending a helping hand to anyone in need. He is a gamer and his Yamaha R-1 motorcycle is his prize possession. Fishing, camping, and riding dirt bikes and four wheelers are some of Robert's favorite things to do. His memory will be eternal among a host of family and friends who love him.

Surviving family members include his parents, Robert and Heather Morris; sisters, Alyssa, Alexis, Ashley, Athena, Elizabeth, and Emilee; grandparents, Steven and Darla Love; as well as numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Robert is preceded in death by his grandparents, Bob and Barbara Morris; great grandparents, Robert and Fern Morris, as well as James and Jewel Love; and his aunts, Elizabeth Rodrigues and Katie Love.

Bob and Robert were my favorite delivery drivers for LDF. Ive been with QT for 15yrs, and Id look forward to seeing these two guys every Wednesday. After hearing the news, I thought someone was pulling my leg. Its hit me right in the gut. Robert would always walk in with a smile, wed crack a stupid joke and chit chat while his dad did all the work. Im going to miss his raunchy humor. Robert would crack the biggest smile when I would roast his dad. Hes was like family!
