My prayers goes out to Don's family. I was in the Air Guard with Don and he was always very helpful during our deployments. The first time I met Don he came up behind me and tapped on my shoulder and said "Hello Cuz". I really enjoyed visiting with him talking about our ancestors. He will truly be missed.

Don, you will always be remembered as the quiet constant. At all the family get together you always had a hug for everyone, even us that weren't born in the family. You had a great sense of humor and an easy laugh. I would try whatever I had to make you laugh. You never disappointed me 😊 I know you are at the Lord's side now and I bet you will make him smile. Love you and miss you dearly already.
