Audra was born at the City of Faith Hospital (ORU) and as a little girl proudly proclaimed her birthday to be August the Five. She grew up in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma next to her 5 cousins and enjoy all the adventures and fun times they had together. The family moved to Jenks, Ok. when she was 13. She played on the varsity volleyball and basketball teams but soon realized sports wasn't her thing. She married Raymond in 2009 and they had a beautiful little girl, she named Iris Jude Patterson. She's 11 years old and full of life and excitement. She passed from heart complications while in the hospital and woke up in Heaven where Grandmas & Grandpas Foster and Martin were waiting to welcome her home. Audra was a lovely part of the music in our wedding. I knew I could depend on this very spirited young lady. The world is better for her time here on earth and we are praying for her very close-knit family in Jesus name.
