H eath Brown Obituary

A service celebrating the life of Heath Matthew Brown will be held 10 AM Monday, April 12, 2021 at the First Assembly of God Church in Haskell. Heath passed away April 6, 2021 at Saint Francis Hospital in Tulsa. He was 54 years old. Born August 20, 1966 in Grand Rapids, Michigan, Heath was the son of John Wesley and Sandra Gale (Hutson) Brown. Heath played football while growing up and always loved the outdoors, spending his time catching Armadillos while driving the back country roads. He later moved to Oklahoma to be nearer family. Heath spent most of his working life paving asphalt. He was an amazing cook, always tuning in to the Food Network. His Alfredo sauce was absolutely the best! Heath was an avid fan of Batman and the Detroit Lions football team. Survivors include his wife, Lesley Mier; his children, Heath Jr., Reese, Alli, and Ian Brown; his granddaughter, Laiklynn, his sister, Mary Sanders and husband, Kenny; and his brother, James Brown and wife, Tammy. Heath was preceded in death by his parents; his brother, Drew Brown; and his first wife, Alison Brown.
