Tommy, I have been thinking about you allot here lately I miss you so much, our long talks telling you my problems and you telling me yours, you was truely the best friend I ever had, why did you not want to let me know that you was so bad ? I know you told me you had MS and cancer of the blood as well as heart trouble, I tried to take care of you when you came to my house and stayed over 2 weeks with us I tried my best to take care of you the very best I could, we made a promise to each other that we would always be the best friends for life, but I truely thought I would go before you. But I do have all the great memories we made from way back along time ago.I dont think it will be much longer tell we will meet again, this world is getting crazier and I know that really bothered you! Well my sweet friend I hope to see you soon!! Love You to the moon and back!Nancy Forest BFF

Tommy, was a very special friend I went to school with him at grade school and At Madison Jr High,He was a BFF and will be missed very much, I know he was very lonely the last few years and concerned about the way our country has been, he talked to me about the Lord often and was looking forward to being with his Mother and Dad he loved them very much. He would come to my house and eat dinner and I would always send enough home for him to eat on for at least a week, when he would come back I would just fill them up again.Tommy Rest In Peace we will all be joining you again soon, this is just temporary.Our friendship will live on for ever.I will keep your secrets to myself as I promised you I know you was sad about some of the thing's you told me about, I prayed for you and tried to encourage you to keep the good fight of faith, that at the end you would win, and yes it looks like you did, you are in the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ and walking the streets of Gold , you have seen your Mom and Dad as well as Paula Gayle your sister!We will see you again soon, now you don't have to worry anymore my sweet precious friend!!❤️🌟✝️🙏 Nancy Forest Cook R.I.P.
