Louise Fletcher Obituary

Louise Alfreda Fletcher of Bixby, OK, passed away on Thursday, October 29, 2020.

Louise was born to parents Vernon and Katie Abbey on January 21, 1925 in Gassville, Arkansas. She grew up in Tulsa and attended Central High School. In 1943, she married Bob Fletcher, and in 1954 had a son, Randy. She shared many friendships with couples they met at First Methodist Church Tulsa and enjoyed working in Bob's construction business and tending to their ranch. Most recently she was part of the Autumn Park apartment community who was like her extended family and was loved by many in the community.

Louise is survived by her niece, Cindi Kruse of Dallas, TX, and two nephews, Jeff Abbey of Boca Raton, FL, and Brian Abbey of McKinney, TX. She is preceded in death by her husband, her son, and her parents.

Friends and family are invited to attend the memorial service in the First Methodist Church sanctuary at 1 p.m. on Monday, November 16. Donations to First Methodist Church Tulsa are requested in her memory.

Cindi, Jeff & Brian. Sorry to hear about your aunt Louise. I can remember how much fun it was when we were children in the 50's & early 60's and the Abbey, Fletcher, and Leonard families would visit each other on occasion during the Christmas holidays. My condolences. Craig Leonard
