Lawrence Allen Chapman

My earliest memories are of Larry and Lance coming over to play. The four of us would run around that big old house on Alton St. and make up stories to act out. Larry always wanted to boss every body around because he was older. A few months is all. As teens and adults we were separated by many miles. We didn't always have a phone to reach each other, but we seemed pick up the thread somehow. More recently we had been talking more. I truly was shocked to learn of his health condition. He was seemingly indestructible all those years. Got out of more scrapes and jams than any person I have every heard of. And those were only the ones I knew about. I am glad he was in the place he was at the time he was. Good times and good friends meant a lot to him.

Larry was born in Alton, IL, June 6th 1952. Boy was he a hellraiser. Me, well I was just laid back and cool. Our father died when I was just 4. It was my only memory of him. The family traveled around a while to Tuson, Oakland then settled in Ft Myers FL. After high school he had a brief stint in the Army then took off to see the world. I hope he had lots of pictures to take with. I will miss him. He is preceeded in death by his mother Aileen. Older sister Sharon and youngest brother.
