Lyle Wayne Mack

AUG 28, 1954 - JAN 5, 2025

Lyle Wayne Mack, a loving husband, father, and friend, passed away on Sunday, January 5, 2025, at Saint Francis Hospital in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He was 70 years old.

Born on August 28, 1954, in Sunnyside, Washington, Lyle was the son of Vernon and Darlene (Weaver) Mack. He grew up in the state of Washington, attending Auburn High School, where he was actively involved in the Future Farmers of America (FFA). Lyle had a passion for raising and showing pigs, a skill he mastered with dedication and enthusiasm.

Lyle pursued his education in mechanical engineering at Green River Community College, a path that reflected his innovative and hands-on approach to life. Lyle met the love of his life, Joanne. Together, they built a life filled with love, laughter, and shared adventures.

A skilled entrepreneur, Lyle owned and operated A+ Appliance Repair in Northwest Arkansas, where his hard work and sincerity earned him the respect of his community and customers. Known for his optimism, dedication, and genuine kindness, Lyle approached life with a contagious energy that inspired everyone around him.

Lyle found joy in the outdoors, spending his time hiking and engaging in various outdoor activities. His love for living life to its fullest was evident in his boundless enthusiasm and the meaningful connections he forged with family and friends.

Lyle is survived by his devoted wife, Joanne; his sister, Cindy; his three children, Ruthanne, Lyle Jr., and Grace; numerous grandchildren; and a host of extended family members and friends. He was preceded in death by his parents, Vernon and Darlene Mack, and his sister, Pam.

Lyle's legacy of optimism, hard work, and sincerity will live on in the hearts of all who knew him. He will be deeply missed and forever cherished.
