Brian David Crites

JUN 21, 1971 - JUL 27, 2025

It is with immense sadness that we share the passing of Brian Crites, a cherished husband, father, and friend.

Brian was a man defined by his profound love. With every fiber of his being, he devoted himself to our family, providing and protecting us in ways that words cannot fully capture. The love he had for his wife Leigh-Anne and his children and spouses: Ashley & Chris, Paige, Breanna, Rachael & Jeremy, and his grandchildren, Oran and Liam, was evident in every smile, every shared moment, and every ounce of care he poured into our lives. His grandchildren were the light of his life.

He loved his mother Nancy fiercely as well as his brothers, Barry & Kyle, and his sister Angie.

His humor was a bright light that lit up our days, even during challenging times. Brian had an extraordinary gift for making people laugh, easing worries with his quick wit and warm spirit. His laughter filled our home, creating a joyful environment that we will always remember fondly.

As our protector, Brian was a steady presence, always ready with comforting words and advice that made everything feel right. His unwavering loyalty and devotion provided us with a sense of safety and support that we will carry in our hearts forever.

In this time of loss, we find comfort in the beautiful memories we created together—the laughter, the love, and the precious moments that defined our lives. Brian's legacy will live on through the kindness and support he instilled in us.

We will honor his memory by embracing the values he held dear.

Rest in peace, my dear Brian, you will be deeply missed, forever loved, and always remembered.

I am so sorry for your loss. I took care of Brian and his siblings when he was young one summer in Skiatook. He was a great kid and my parents still live down the road from the house they lived it and we have talked often of him and his family. Angela Hogue Taylor
