My heart still hurts. I hear you everyday in your wind chimes. You were so good to me and I always knew you loved me. Anytime I got to spend with you was a wonderful memory. I'm excited to see you again in heaven. Love you

May the Lord bless her family as I was touched by Sandy's love for teaching reading. Sandy will missed . May the Lord comfort her husband. I remember her as we taught school together at Darnaby Elementary Union Schools.

Sandy Mann, a cheerleader for all and a golden touch for servicing students that may have reading difficulty. Sandy was our Reading Specialist for many years and I worked with her and then became her principal. I truly cashed in on a great employee, ethical, wise, and kind and always choosing to take the correct path for all obstacles. I loved her chuckle and that slight grin she had. Her gifts will be missed. She was loved by many and loved her husband, Bill, beyond the limits. Sandy will always be remembered by those who loved her well. I will definitely miss her...We loved to talk sports with each other. RIP Sandy!
