

Theresa Marie Catherine Rudisaile

DEC 10, 1964 - APR 17, 2026

Scan to Visit

Bixby-South
Tulsa Funeral Service
& Crematory

Table of Contents

Obituary .....	Page 3
Events .....	Page 5
Tribute Wall .....	Page 6
Media .....	Page 9

Theresa Marie Catherine Rudisaile

DEC 10, 1964 - APR 17, 2026

Theresa Marie Catherine Rudisaile, age 61, passed away peacefully on April 17, 2026, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. A funeral ceremony honoring Theresa will be held on Saturday, April 25, 2026 at 11:00 AM in the Rivercrest Chapel located at 13329 S. Memorial Dr. in Bixby, Oklahoma. A private interment will be held in Bixby Cemetery.

Theresa was born on December 10, 1964, in Tulsa, to James and Florence (Perkins) Rudisaile. Theresa grew up in west Tulsa, where she attended the St. Catherine School. She went on to build a meaningful career, serving as a Certified Nursing Assistant and earlier working in several roles as an administrative assistant.

Raised in the Catholic faith, Theresa also gained spiritual family at West Tulsa United Methodist Church and Garden City Baptist Church, both of which she was an active and cherished member of the congregation for many years.

Theresa had a deep love for the outdoors and found great joy in walking nature trails at the park. She was the kind of person who would extend an open invitation to anyone willing to join her on a new trail - always eager to share the simple beauty of a walk in nature. Theresa was an emphatically proud and devoted grandmother, finding her greatest happiness in loving and celebrating her grandchildren. She also adored her dog, Pops, who was a constant and beloved companion.

Those who knew Theresa would describe her, above all, as a survivor. She faced many challenges throughout her life and met each one with quiet strength and resilience - a testament to the remarkable woman she was.

Theresa is survived by her son, Jeremy Lea, and Shelby Bolen; her daughter, Jamie Stephens and her husband Harrison; and her grandchildren, Dax, Fletcher, Hollis, Barry, and Remi; her sisters,

Obituary

Theresa Marie Catherine Rudisaile

DEC 10, 1964 - APR 17, 2026

---

Sue Dilday and Deborah Potts; and her brothers, Dennis Rudisaile, Joe Rudisaile, and David Rudisaile; and numerous other relatives and friends.

Events

Theresa Marie Catherine Rudisaile

DEC 10, 1964 - APR 17, 2026

Funeral

 Tomorrow, April 25, 2026

 11:00 AM CT

 RiverCrest Chapel and Event Center
13329 S. Memorial Dr., Bixby OK 74008

Tribute Wall

Theresa Marie Catherine Rudisaile

DEC 10, 1964 - APR 17, 2026

Mindi Humphrey posted:

I met Teresa during our time working at Metal Processing and our friendship remained throughout the years. Time, nor the hustle and bustle of life, kept us from picking up right where we left off. We always shared lots of laughs, tears and memories. Teresa could cook something from scratch...she taught me how to make her egg noodles. She was a hustler, making a way when at times there didn't seem to be a defined path or plan. She was a hard worker and did her job(s) well. I always admired her hustle. I will miss her laugh and our uninhibited, loud conversations! Sweet-T will forever live in my heart & fondest memories. Keeping the family in close thought & prayers. Love to you all! ~ Mindi

April 23 at 8:16 PM

Anonymous sent a Full Of Love Bouquet to the Rudisaile family.

April 23 at 7:35 PM

Tribute Wall

Theresa Marie Catherine Rudisaile

DEC 10, 1964 - APR 17, 2026

Joe Rudisaile posted:

There are so many growing up with that crazy always fun, loving little sister of mine, running & playing outside, us boys screaming at her when we were like 10 years old, she would be our soccer goalkeeper that was more interested in practicing her cartwheels than stopping the ball flying through the goal. I've got to learn asphalt. Little sisters are here for irritate big brothers lol makes for great memories 🤔 Yeah we were trying to play soccer, but she was more interested in practicing her gymnastics, oh, I could go on and on about growing up with that little nut, and I hope to read some more memories, others have growing up with Tresa as well. I think the main thing I'd like to share would be her last couple of years which were obviously her toughest, but I like to share how she dealt with that, her toughest times..The last couple of years, which we all know has been the hardest on her with many life changes she wasn't prepared for & having the misfortune of falling at her new home & consequently having to deal with recovery from the brain surgery that ensued, as well as the strokes that ensued just when she thought we all thought she might be OK. She would suffer another stroke to knock her back down. So her children were able to get her into her own place back in town closer to families and doctors, but another stroke necessitated her having to move to retirement center which no one wanted, of course, but was necessary at this point. It took a little adjusting, but she chose to make new friends & always lit up whenever she would tell her new friends about her grandkids and her children. I've got to say that while I had myself, I've had a tough time dealing with being forced to retire early because of physical challenges I will cherish the time I was able to spend with little sister these last couple tough years when she had to move to the retirement center, I was able to take her out for a car rides & just get her out outside for a while, she just thought that little mini Cooper crap i was driving was the best thing in the world because It had a great sound system lol but she would go back and tell her new friends how much fun she had, baby I new group we found on YouTube, like myself, she just love music, everything about it just made her light up for sure, so yeah she made the most of her to situation. That's what I remember most. Yes she had a rough time of it these last few years but that girl would always find a way to have some fun regardless lol love you sis. RIP ❤️

April 23 at 11:09 AM

Tribute Wall

Theresa Marie Catherine Rudisaile

DEC 10, 1964 - APR 17, 2026

Joe Rudisaile posted:

There are so many growing up with that crazy always fun, loving little sister of mine, running & playing outside, us boys screaming at her when we were like 10 years old, she would be our soccer goalkeeper that was more interested in practicing her cartwheels than stopping the ball flying through the goal. I've got to learn asphalt. Little sisters are here for irritate big brothers lol makes for great memories 🤔 Yeah we were trying to play soccer, but she was more interested in practicing her gymnastics, oh, I could go on and on about growing up with that little nut, and I hope to read some more memories, others have growing up with Tresa as well. I think the main thing I'd like to share would be her last couple of years which were obviously her toughest, but I like to share how she dealt with that, her toughest times..The last couple of years, which we all know has been the hardest on her with many life changes she wasn't prepared for & having the misfortune of falling at her new home & consequently having to deal with recovery from the brain surgery that ensued, as well as the strokes that ensued just when she thought we all thought she might be OK. She would suffer another stroke to knock her back down. So her children were able to get her into her own place back in town closer to families and doctors, but another stroke necessitated her having to move to retirement center which no one wanted, of course, but was necessary at this point. It took a little adjusting, but she chose to make new friends & always lit up whenever she would tell her new friends about her grandkids and her children. I've got to say that while I had myself, I've had a tough time dealing with being forced to retire early because of physical challenges I will cherish the time I was able to spend with little sister these last couple tough years when she had to move to the retirement center, I was able to take her out for a car rides & just get her out outside for a while, she just thought that little mini Cooper crap i was driving was the best thing in the world because It had a great sound system lol but she would go back and tell her new friends how much fun she had, baby I new group we found on YouTube, like myself, she just love music, everything about it just made her light up for sure, so yeah she made the most of her to situation. That's what I remember most. Yes she had a rough time of it these last few years but that girl would always find a way to have some fun regardless lol love you sis. RIP ❤️

April 23 at 11:09 AM

Sue Dilday shared 7 photos to the Tribute Wall album.

April 23 at 11:09 AM

Media

Theresa Marie Catherine Rudisaile

DEC 10, 1964 - APR 17, 2026

Sue Dilday shared 7 photos to the Tribute Wall album.

April 23 at 11:09 AM

Media

Theresa Marie Catherine Rudisaile

DEC 10, 1964 - APR 17, 2026

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Theresa by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit

Bixby-South
Tulsa Funeral Service
& Crematory